Regulations.

Admission.

Any Candidate for Orders in the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States may, on examination, be received as a Student in the Seminary; and any other person who may give sufficient evidence of a fair moral and religious character.

Examinations.

Candidates for admission, not Bachelors of Arts, must pass a satisfactory examination in the Latin language, and in Classical and Hellenistic Greek; in the general principles of Natural, Intellectual and Moral Philosophy, and Rhetoric. They will also be required to read an Original Composition.

Under proper restrictions, and under the direction of the Dean, students may avail themselves of the facilities furnished by Milnor Hall Grammar School and Kenyon College, to prepare to enter the Seminary, without a Diploma. In this case a certificate from the College Faculty, that they have successfully pursued the required studies, will be accepted in lieu of an examination. Candidates for the Ministry who take this course must exhibit the permission of their Bishop.

Candidates for admission to an advanced standing, must pass an examination in all the studies which the class they desire to enter, has pursued.

A public examination of each class is held previously to the Annual Commencement; and Certificates are awarded to those who on the final examination are found to have successfully pursued the full course of study.

Matriculation.

Every Student, on being admitted to full standing, must subscribe the following declaration in the Matriculation Book of the Seminary:

"We, the subscribers, Students in the Theological Seminary of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Ohio, do solemnly promise, with reliance on Divine Grace, that we will faithfully obey the laws and prosecute the studies thereof, endeavor to promote the reputation and interests of the Seminary, and make daily effort, by pious reading, self-examination and secret prayer, to cultivate all religious and moral dispositions and habits, and grow in those graces which should characterize the Christian and the Minister of the Cross."

The day of Matriculation is determined each year by the convenience of the Bishop; occurring, however, always in the month of December.

Seminary Year.

The Seminary Year extends from the first Thursday in October to the last Thursday in June.

It is divided into three Terms, as follows:

FALL TERM.—From 1st Thursday in October, until Christmas Day.

CHRISTMAS TERM.—From New Year's Day, until Passion Week.

EASTER TERM.—From Easter Monday, until Commencement.

During the Christmas Recess, Students have leave of absence.

During Passion Week recess, only recitations are suspended.

Every Student is expected to be present on the first day of the Fall Term.

Course of Study.

The Course of Study embraces eight Departments, and extends through Three Years, as follows:

Laws and Regulations of Kenyon College.Divisions of the Collegiate Year.

The Collegiate Year is divided into Three Terms and three vacations.

The First Term begins ten weeks after Commencement, and continues Fifteen Weeks.

The Second Term begins two weeks after the close of the First, and continues Twelve Weeks.

The Third Term begins two weeks after the close of the Second, and continues Eleven Weeks.

[For particular dates, see Calendar, page 22.]

Examinations and Public Exercises.

There is a regular examination of all the Classes at the close of each Term. That which takes place at the close of Easter Term is called the Annual Examination, and is followed by the Commencement; the others are called Term Examinations. To attend and report on these Examinations, a Standing Committee of twelve is annually appointed by the Diocesan Convention. The Assistant Bishop attends all the examinations through the year; the Bishop usually attends the one immediately preceding Commencement.

Students, who by sickness, or any other unavoidable necessity, are prevented from appearing at the regular examinations, may be examined separately; but no student, under any circumstances, is deemed to have made good his standing, or kept his term, till he has passed a proper examination.

Attendance.

No Student is allowed to be absent in Term time, without special leave from the President and Faculty. The absence of a Student in Term Time, even for a few days, occasions a much greater injury to his progress in study than parents and guardians commonly suppose, and they are earnestly requested not to give their consent to any absence except for very urgent reasons. In all the departments of the Institution, Students are required to be present at the beginning of the Term.

Every student is required to attend punctually upon all the literary and religious exercises. In case of necessary absence from any exercise, the student must inform the officer in charge, beforehand. Should this be impossible, he is required to present his excuse as soon as possible after the absence has occurred.

Religious Worship.

Students are required to be present at Church twice on Sundays, and on such other days as the Faculty may direct, and at Daily Morning and Evening Prayers in the College Chapel.

Scholarship and Conduct.

The scholarship and conduct of undergraduates are marked and reported as follows :

Every student at each recitation is marked, unless excused, from 0 to 10, the first symbol indicating a total failure, and the last a perfect recitation. When any one absents himself from a recitation, unexcused, he is marked 0; if excused, he receives his average grade.

Absence from recitation or failure to prepare a lesson, without excuse, will incur two marks of demerit; and misconduct during recitation from one to five marks of demerit.

Absence from Church, or leaving Church, without good excuse, will incur two marks of demerit; Tardiness at Church, and absence from Morning and Evening Prayers, will incur one mark of demerit; and Misconduct, during Religious Service, from one to five marks of demerit.

The average grade of each student and marks of demerit will be reported by the Patron to the Parent or Guardian at the close of each term.

Matriculation.

No Student, even after his admission to College, is allowed to matriculate, until he shall have sustained a satisfactory probation of at least one term, and established a personal claim to the confidence of the Faculty. Matriculation alone gives accredited membership in the Institution, and renders the student upon whom it is conferred a proper candidate for degrees and honors. Should any student, after matriculation, abuse the confidence on which that act proceeds, he may be reduced again to the condition of a Probationer, and then further disciplined, as the occasion may require.

Patronage.

Each student, within six weeks after his admission into College, is required to choose some one of the Faculty to act as his College Patron. To his Patron he is at liberty, and is expected, to apply, as to a friend, whenever his inclination, or circumstances, may lead him to seek advice or information on any subject connected with his academic standing and pursuits, or with his personal welfare.

The Patron on his part, is expected to exercise a parental guardianship over his client, giving him advice and caution as he may see occasion.

In doing this, he will consult the wishes of the Parents, as well as the interests of the Institution, and will take care to be advised of both, as may seem necessary for his client's welfare, so long as he remains connected with the Institution. The Patron will also, at the end of each term, forward to the Parent or Guardian of each student under his charge, an account of the Student's deportment during the session, as well as his grades in each study pursued. Parents or Guardians not receiving letters at the expiration of each term are requested to communicate, at once, with the Faculty.

Students' Rooms.

The rooms are sufficiently large and convenient to accommodate two students each, and no student will be allowed to room alone except by special permission, and by incurring an additional expense for rent and fuel. Each room is provided with a stove: the occupants are held responsible for all damage to the room during their occupancy.

Every Student must deposit $1 with the College Treasurer at the beginning of each term, to cover incidental damages to the College buildings; the balance, if any, to be refunded at the end of the year.

College Bills.

Tuition, $32 per annum; Room rent, $12; Incidentals, $8; Deposit for damage, $3; to be paid in advance,—one-third at the beginning of each term.

When the student obtains full standing in his College Class, no deduction will be made for absence.

Annual Expenses.

College Bill,	$52 to $52
Boarding,	40 to 120
Fuel,	8 to 12
Washing,	10 to 12
Lights,	5 to 8
Total,	$115 to $204

The above estimate for the annual expenses of each student is exclusive of expenses in vacations, also of the cost of text books, ordinary incidentals and furniture. Students board themselves in their rooms, by special permission, at $1 to $1.50 per week; in boarding clubs, where a cook is employed, for $1.50 to $1.75 per week, and in private families for $2.25 to $3 per week. Furniture and bedding can be obtained here, but when convenient, it will be well for students to bring bedding, towels, &c., from home.

Parents or Guardians may, if they desire, make their remittances through the College Patron, or in some way subject to his control; and may advise with him as to any allowance of money they may wish to furnish, over and above the estimates here given. A profuse allowance of money almost invariably works injury to the character and scholarship of the student; and the privilege of purchasing articles on credit is especially injurious.

Libraries and Literary Societies.

Libraries.

The Libraries to which Students may have access, are as follows, viz:

1. The Library of the Seminary and College, containing 6,720 vols.
2. That of the Philomathesian Society, containing 4,407 vols.
3. That of the Nu Pi Kappa Society, containing 3,907 vols.

Literary Societies.

There are two Literary Societies: The Philomathesian and the Nu Pi Kappa. Their commodious Halls occupy the second and third stories of the central portion of Ascension Hall. These large and beautiful Halls add much to the efficiency and prosperity of the Societies, as well as to the comfort of the members.

Geometry.—Davies' Legendre, (First Book.)

Grecian History.—Pinnock's Goldsmith's.

Roman History.—Pinnock's Goldsmith's.

Rhetorical Exercises.—Reading and Orthography; Declamation and Composition.

Religious Instruction.—Weekly Recitations in the Bible.

Students of Grammar School, who do not desire to pursue the entire Preparatory course for College, can take a partial or irregular course. They can have the privilege of electing studies from the College course, and of attending Lectures and Recitations with the College Classes, in such subjects as they may elect and be qualified to pursue. The endeavor will be to impart to such students an accurate and thorough business education.

Boys as young as thirteen years of age, are received into the school. The Principal is prepared to take such pupils as desire it into his family, providing them with neatly furnished rooms, board, lights, fuel, and washing, at $225 per year of forty weeks. This arrangement is essential for the younger pupils of the school. Others also have the privilege of boarding in the family of the Principal at $2 25 per week; or they can obtain board in private families of the village, at $2.25 to $3.00 per week. There is also a boarding club connected with the school, under the supervision of the Principal, at an average cost to each member of $1.50 to $1.75 per week.

The students of Kenyon Grammar School occupy rooms in the building known as Milnor Hall, where the Principal of the school also resides. This building is large and commodious; the rooms are airy and comfortable, and the grounds surrounding sufficiently extensive for the purposes of exercise and recreation.

Students not resident in the family of the Principal, furnish their own rooms with every thing except stoves. Two students occupy one room, and no one will be allowed to room alone except by special permission, and by incurring an additional expense for rent and fuel.

Examinations.

There is a public Examination of all the Classes at the close of each Term, which is attended by the Examining Committee, and also by the Bishop and College Faculty.

Discipline.

The discipline, as far as possible, is intended to be parental. A careful supervision will be exercised at all times over the students in and out of their rooms; and particular attention will be paid to their habits in regard to health, morals, and general manners. Their rooms will be visited by the Principal or Assistant, at least, once each day, and the occupants of the rooms are required to keep them clean and orderly. No student is allowed to be absent from his room during study hours, and in no case later than ten o'clock in the evening.

Religious Exercises.

The students are required to attend church twice on Sundays, and such other occasions as the Faculty may direct; also, morning and evening prayers at Milnor Hall.

Expenses.

Tuition, $26 per annum; Room rent, $12; Incidentals, $8; Deposit for damage, $3; to be paid in advance—one-third at the beginning of each Term.

Parents or guardians, who desire it, can make their remittances through the Principal, and subject to his control.

Literary Societies.

Connected with the school there are two Literary Societies, the Phi Delta and the Athenian. The members of these Societies have access to the Libraries of the College Societies.

Object.

The object of this Institution is to thoroughly prepare boys for entering the Freshman Class of Kenyon College; and also to offer to young men, not intending to enter College, facilities for attaining a thorough, practical, business education.

Time, Departments, etc.

The Scholastic Year is divided into two Terms of five months each. The Fall Term begins on the second Wednesday in September, 1862. The Spring Term begins on the first Wednesday in March, 1863.

The School is divided into three Departments—General Preparatory; Collegiate; and Business and Scientific Department.

Terms.

Boys of all ages will be received into the family of the Principal, at $150 per annum. This includes tuition and board. Each pupil furnishes his own books, stationery, towels, and table napkins.

Board can be procured in private families, at reasonable rates.

Tuition alone in the Primary Class, $8 per session; Secondary Class, $10; and in all others, $14 per session.

EXTRA CHARGES PER 11 WEEKS.

Music on Piano or Melodeon....	$10	Painting in Water Colors.....	$ 5
Use of Instrument.....	2	“ in Oil.....	10
French and German, each.....	5	“ Pastil.....	10
Drawing and Penciling.....	2	“ Monochromatic.....	5

All bills payable half session in advance.

General Regulations.

1. All pupils are required to be present at all Literary and Religious Exercises; to attend all services of the Episcopal Church on Sundays, unless parents otherwise request.

2. Before passing to an advanced class in school, pupils must stand a satisfactory examination in the studies, or equivalent studies, of the preceding class.

3. Pupils will be held responsible for all damages to furniture or buildings, and fifty cents must be deposited to cover such damages; the balance, if any, will be returned.

4. The use of tobacco is prohibited, nor shall any one associate with profane or immoral persons, or frequent any tavern, store or shop.

5. No one is to leave Worthington, or be absent from school, without consent of the Principal.

Location.

The Institution is situated in the village of Worthington, eight miles north of Columbus, Ohio, and is connected with the Capital by a plank road. It lies on the Whetstone River, and, in elevation, is about 150 feet above Columbus. The Cleveland, Columbus and Cincinnati Railroad passes in its immediate vicinity. The place is remarkably healthy, beautifully situated, and admirably adapted to a school.

History.

In the year 1803 certain lands were set apart by the early settlers, for a school at this place; and in 1819 this school was incorporated under the name of "Worthington College." Since the removal of "The Theological Seminary of the Diocese of Ohio and Kenyon College" to Gambier, its present site, Worthington College has been comparatively dead.

At the Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church of this Diocese in 1859, a proposition of the Trustees of Kenyon College was laid before the Convention, proposing to make this Institution auxiliary to Kenyon College. This proposition resulted in the appointment of an Executive Committee, who elected Rev. P. S. RUTH, A. M., as Principal.

There is a parish of the Episcopal Church here in active operation.

For circulars or special information, address Rev. P. S. RUTH, A. M., Worthington, Franklin county, Ohio.
